

The University of Southern Mississippi The Aquila Digital Community

Peggy Jean Connor Research Grant Award

CSRW Awards

2014

2014 Peggy Jean Connor Award Competition Announcement

CSRW

Follow this and additional works at: http://aquila.usm.edu/csrw_peggy_jean_connor

Recommended Citation

CSRW, "2014 Peggy Jean Connor Award Competition Announcement" (2014). Peggy Jean Connor Research Grant Award. Paper 6.
http://aquila.usm.edu/csrw_peggy_jean_connor/6

This 2013-14 is brought to you for free and open access by the CSRW Awards at The Aquila Digital Community. It has been accepted for inclusion in Peggy Jean Connor Research Grant Award by an authorized administrator of The Aquila Digital Community. For more information, please contact Joshua.Cromwell@usm.edu.

The Committee on Services and Resources for Women
Announces the call for the
Peggy Jean Connor Award 2014
GRANT COMPETITION

Grants of up to $1000 will be awarded to support Southern Miss faculty, staff or graduate students pursuing research or professional development activities directly focused on issues of importance to/for/about women. Men and women may apply. Grants are available in the following three categories:

- Faculty and students may request money for research and/or conference support for presentation.
- Staff members may apply to attend workshops or conferences that will enhance their abilities to serve the needs of women at Southern Miss.

* People who received stipends in the last four years are not eligible to apply. ****

Winners will present their work at the Women's History Month Brown Bag, March 2015.

Applicants should email the following to Stacy.Creel@usm.edu

1) Cover page with name, department, status (faculty, staff, graduate student), grant type (research and/or conference), address, and USM e-mail address. Do not put identifying information on any other page.

2) Proposal of 1000 total words or less. Write to a general audience (no jargon).

- Research proposals should include: background, research questions and/or hypotheses, participants, methodology, and how it relates to issues of importance to/for/about women.
- Requests for conference travel should include the details of the proposed project presentation. Include: name and nature of the conference, importance of the conference to your discipline, summary of your research project and how it relates to issues of importance to/for/about women.
- Professional development proposals should include the details of the development activity, how it relates to current position, and expected benefits.

Note: Funds are competitively awarded - Please provide sufficient detail to allow the committee adequate information to review your proposal.

3) Budget and budget justification (include any current or pending support if applicable).

DEADLINE: March 7, 2014

Address applications and any inquiries to:

Dr. Stacy Creel at Stacy.Creel@usm.edu or 6-5704